

Interested in a museum career?

INTERNATIONAL MUSEUMS AND COLLECTIONS

Seeking to develop your professional skills while working alongside museum professionals within an international context?

AWARD

2018

MUSEUMS AND COLLECTIONS UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

If you would like to receive funding to travel to the United Kingdom and work with the museums and collections at the University of Birmingham as part of an exciting Universitas 21 initiative, then read on ...

This prestigious opportunity will be awarded to a student from the University of Melbourne who would like to advance their collection management skills working alongside museum professionals at the University of Birmingham in the United Kingdom. The month-long placement, to be taken in early 2019, will expand your professional skills within the cultural collections sector while enriching your academic study program.

INTERNATIONAL AWARD OPPORTUNITY

You are invited to apply for the Award if you are approaching your final year of undergraduate study or are a postgraduate student. For more information, details on eligibility and application forms see:

http://museumsandcollections.unimelb.edu.au/teaching_and_learning/cultural_collections_projects_program/international-museums-and-collections-award

For information on the Universitas 21 network and other exciting opportunities see:

<http://www.universitas21.com/>

UNIVERSITY OF BIRMINGHAM

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

APPLY
BY FRIDAY
17 AUGUST
2018