

Recent Exhibitions in the Baillieu Library

The 1996 Exhibition program has included displays from the Library's collections on bookplates, Henry Lawson and Homeric themes in prints. Here are a few examples.

▲ This page, (l to r):
 "A.K. His Book", bookplate by American graphic artist, Allen Lewis (1873-1957); from The Age of Ex Libris Exhibition.
 Bookplate of Harold Desbrowe Annear, (1865-1933) from the Ex Libris Exhibition

◀ Opposite (top):
 Illustration by Lionel Lindsay in The Romance of the Swag from the exhibition, Henry Lawson Examples of Lawsoniana
 (Bottom):
 Marcantonio Raimondi The Judgement of Paris, n.d. from The Homeric Themes in Prints Exhibition

Baillieu Library Exhibitions Program 1996

- |                              |  |
|------------------------------|--|
| 8 May-31 July         | Henry LawsonExamples of Lawsoniana from the McLaren CollectionBaillieu Library, First Floor Exhibition Area |
| 8 May-31 July         | Homeric Themes in PrintsBaillieu Library, Leigh Scott Room  |
| 8 August-22 October   | South Africa: A Changing SocietyBaillieu Library, First Floor Exhibition Area                                   |
| 8 August-29 October   | Boats IIFrom the Print CollectionBaillieu Library, Leigh Scott Room   |
| 25-27 October         | Books By Women GraduatesBaillieu Library, First Floor Exhibition Area   |
| 4 November-31 January | The Image of the Pacific in MapsBaillieu Library, First Floor Exhibition Area                                   |