About This Issue

This issue is dedicated to the memory of the late Dr John Foster and his bequest to the University of Melbourne Library. Our cover, Juliet Flesch's Recollection (page 6), Steven Welch's article (page 8) and the reprint of The Churches and the Holocaust (page 18) all commemorate Dr Foster, a member of the History Faculty and a great friend and devotee of the Library.

Friends of the Baillieu Library

Why you should join the Friends of the Baillieu Library

Every year the University of Melbourne Library depends on the Friends to support its work and to help buy items of special importance. The Library, one of the largest in Australia, adds more than 30,000 volumes to its collections and information databases in 17 languages. Many rare and notable works beyond the Library's budget have been added to the collection through the efforts of the Friends.

Benefits of Friends Membership

- Special events throughout the year
- Free copies of the Library magazines Ex Libris and the Library Journal
- 33% discount on Library borrowing fee
- Use of the Friends Room at the Baillieu Library

Recent activities have included:

- A Valentine's Day Talk on Romance Fiction
- Crime in the Library: a Talk on crime stories and their library settings
- A Seminar on the History of Science featuring the Australian Science Archives Project and Baron von Mueller

Forthcoming events

- The Friends Annual Dinner
- Saturday Seminar: on Paper Engineering
- Twilight Visit to Melbourne Zoo
